

Foundational Assumptions for a community connector

Remember it starts inside us

- 1. you believe that people with disabilities have a place in community and the capacity to contribute to the development of community*
- 2. you believe that there are people who have the capacity and willingness to welcome people with disabilities*
- 3. you are willing to let go*