

What Can I Do ?

Bridging The Gap in Community Connections

- 1) deepen your vision and heart for community – sustain hopes and vision – remember your attitude is foundational
- 2) remember that friendship, belonging and community are difficult frontiers for all of us
- 3) understand, honour and affirm the strengths of the person you are committed to – discover what they have to offer
- 4) get to know the person, plan and talk with them – re their unique aspirations and hopes and likes for community connectedness
- 5) draw from helpful models for community connections
- 6) draw from helpful strategies for community connections
- 7) create opportunities, affirm current linkages, reconnect relationships and support opportunities for connection
- 8) invite in others to the process as you can
