BUILDING CONNECTION & BELONGING IN ART MAKING WITH MATT ARMSTRONG

“Mogriguy Bush Flowers (above) is a watercolour painting which represents part of my own life journey; a mural making process called PATH; grounded and guided by my ancestral stories which connect and support me to navigate “uncertain territory” (Pearpoint). My stories are ,‘above me’ and ‘beyond me’ and act as a ,‘visual anchor’,(Pipi) when needed to be called upon.

This workshop will also graphically record a conversation about how the arts can enhance belonging and connection”.

Matthew will share his own story about attended a conference in Sydney, Grounding the Sacred in Literature and the Arts and share the meaning of his own art making.

We will hear stories, meet others, hear of upcoming events and enjoy afternoon tea (bring something to share if you can). No RSVP required. The workshop is free. Questions: Call A Place to Belong office on 3217-2522.
